Dr. Bryan Miller Wins University Teaching Award

May 15, 2014

Dr. Bryan Miller won the University Award for Excellence in Contributions to Instruction. This award “honors contributions to the teaching-learning process at the institutional level.” By receiving this award, Dr. Miller has “demonstrate[d] excellence in the classroom and beyond by making contributions to the discipline and to the overall institutional mission.” One of his principal accomplishments in this area has been spearheading the Inside-Out prison exchange program at Georgia Southern in the Department of Criminal Justice and Criminology, where university students join incarcerated students at local prisons to take criminal justice courses.
